ANNOUNCE

THE CALL FOR ENROLLMENT INTO
THE JOINT DOCTORAL ACADEMIC STUDIES
“BIOENGINEERING“ IN ACADEMIC 2025/2026

In the academic 2025/2026, Faculty of Engineering, University of Kragujevac and Faculty of Medical Sciences, University of Kragujevac enroll students in doctoral academic studies in the study program:

BIOENGINEERING (180 ECTS) in Serbian and English

Total number of students: 20

Number of self-financing students: 20

Doctoral academic studies "Bioengineering" are interdisciplinary studies of the third degree for the scientific title of PhD in Biomedical Engineering, which are realized during three academic years or six semesters (180 ECTS).

Terms of enrollment:

All candidates who fulfil the requirements and who are ranked within the total number for which the call has been announced have the right to enroll.

The first year of doctoral academic studies can be enrolled by:

- a person with completed academic studies of at least 300 ECTS at previous study levels in the fields of technical and technological sciences, natural and mathematical sciences, or medical sciences with a total GPA of at least 8 (eight).
- a person who has acquired higher education in bachelor studies at the faculty for at least four years with a GPA of at least 8 (eight) acquired according to regulations valid until the day of entry into force of the Law on Higher Education ("Official Gazette of RS", No. 76 / 05, 100/07 - authentic interpretation, 97/08, 44/10, 93/12, 89/13, 99/14, 45/15 - authentic interpretation, 68/15 and 87/16), in the field of technical and technological sciences, natural and mathematical sciences or medical sciences.

To enroll in third-degree studies, the candidate must have previous higher education degrees acquired at a higher education institution that, at the time of the candidate's enrollment in first- and second-degree studies, had a work permit to conduct a study program.

Persons with a GPA of less than 8 (eight) can enroll in the study program of the doctoral academic studies only as self-financing students and if they provide that have scientific papers in the field of studies or if they pass the qualifying exam. A special ranking list is formed for these candidate, and they are ranked within the total number of students in accordance with the work permit, but after the candidates who meet the general condition in terms of GPA.

Criteria for determining the order of candidates

- The order of candidates for enrollment in the first year of doctoral studies is determined based on:
 - GPA obtained during the studies
 - duration of studying.
- * For candidates who have acquired higher education according to the regulations that were valid until the entry into force of the Law on Higher Education ("Official Gazette of RS", No. 76/05, 100/07 - authentic interpretation, 97/08, 44/10, 93/12, 89/13, 99/14, 45/15 - authentic interpretation, 68/15 and 87/16) (hereinafter: the Law), the average grade from bachelor studies which includes the thesis (if any) is taken into account.
- * For candidates who have completed master academic studies, the average of all grades of bachelor and master academic studies is calculated, taking into account both the final and graduate thesis, if there are corresponding grades for them
- If two or more candidates have the same number of points based on the defined criterion, the advantage will be given to the candidate who has a higher average grade achieved in studies, i.e. a higher number of ECTS credits.
- Numerical evaluation of the criteria for determining the order of candidates is performed as follows:
 1. average grade is equal to the number of points (average grade 10 carries 10 points)
 2. the estimated term of study is divided by the length of the actual study and multiplied by ten ($6/6 \cdot 10 = 10$).

Total number of points = GPA + (prescribed duration for completing the studies/actual duration of studying) x 10

Example:

$$8,75 + \frac{6}{8} \times 10 = 16,25$$

The given example is for the candidate who has:

- GPA 8.75
- years of study 8

- The total number of points cannot exceed 20.

The order of candidates for enrollment in the first year of doctoral academic studies is determined based on the total number of points.

The Enrollment Committee forms the ranking list of registered candidates.

The Enrollment Committee may conduct an entrance test before publishing the final ranking list, if necessary.

Enrollment in the study program is determined by the number of available positions and the position of the candidate on the ranking list.
